DEDICATION

Dr. Delano who holds a B.S. from Yale University, a M.S. and a Ph.D from the University of Rochester retired after 26 years of teaching at Fisher.

A physics professor, Dr. Delano was listed in the 1970 and the 1975 editing of "outstanding Educators in America." In 1976 Dr. Delano received the Award for Teaching Excellence from Saint John Fisher. Courses which Dr. Delano developed include General Physics for non-majors, Astronomy, and Sight and Sounds.

Dr. Delano plans for the future include his independent research on Fresnel lenses and in September begin work as a senior research associate at the University of Rochester.

The Beginning of the College

The New Student Orientation 1988 began with moving in. Reality struck most of us as we dragged everything essential to life up five flights of stairs. We came to the conclusion that all our belongings were not going to fit into that tiny room, let alone our roommates' things.

The week was filled with many "welcome" lectures, as well as an excellent presentation by a stand-up comedian. The mixers were only fair, mainly because no one felt comfortable enough with each other to really let go. The field events and cookout lunch went over quite well, as did Casino Night in Kearney Auditorium. Here was where students were transformed into gamblers, with fortunes to be won on the role of the dice.

The best part of Orientation was not the lectures and events, but the people. Friendships were made here that will last a lifetime. This is truly a memory to treasure.

Notes ...

I would like to thank Erik Ludemann of Hunter Publishing, Judy Wilson, Paul Bilgore, and the photography staff of Varden Studios, Inc. and Luke Miller of College Communications for their time and patience. Their assistance and invaluable knowledge were greatly appreciated.

Thanks is also given to those members of the Student Senate who saw the need for a yearbook and passed our budget. I would also like to thank those of you within the Fisher community who took an interest in and contributed to the yearbook.

To Tracy, Lydia, Rob, Leslie, and John-you guys are great.

To Gail-thanks so much! I will still be up to visit with you.

To Charlie "Where's my pencil?" Tasca and Wendy "Stop beeping at me!" Faulds-I am sorry you missed the picture when you both worked so hard.

And to Donna-Thanks for the Junior Prom pictures. I am sorry the year turned out the way it did.

You too could look like this

Join the Yearbook Staff!

And to next year's editor

Best
Wishes,
Holly

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Plyter

Fr. Dorsey

GUESTS OF GOD

From the dust of the weary highway,
From the smart of serious rod,
    Into the royal presence,
They are bidden as guests of God.
The veil from their eyes is taken,
Sweet mysteries they are shown,
Their doubts and fears are over,
For they know as they are shown,
Their doubts and fears are over,
For they know as they are known.

For them there should be rejoicing
For them, the festal array,
As for the bride in her beauty
Whom love hath taken away;
Sweet hours of peaceful waiting,
Till the path that we haave trod
Shall end at the Father's gateway,
And we are the guests of God.
